7.4 Bets accepted in Error

If a Bet is accepted in error by NEDS (whether human error or system failure) on an event or outcome, the Bet will be void and your stake refunded to your Account. Examples of these errors include, but are not limited to:

- (a) where a Bet is accepted at a price or dividend (which includes the odds, handicap provisions and other terms or details of the Bet) that is materially different from those available in the general market at the time the Bet was made or obviously incorrect given the chance of the event occurring at the time the Bet was made;

- (b) where a Bet is accepted in error after the race or event has started (other than nominated In-Play Bets);
- (c) where a Bet is accepted in error after the race or event has finished and the result has been determined. In such instances, NEDS will also consider Bets placed or attempted to be placed after the race or event result is determined as fraud and NEDS reserves the right to suspend or close the Client's Account accordingly.

8. WIN LIMITS/MAXIMUM PAYOUTS AND PAYMENT OF WINNINGS

- 8.1 NEDS reserves the right to limit the net payout (the payout after the stake has been deducted) on any Bet or combination of Bets placed by one Client (or a group of Clients deemed by NEDS to be acting on behalf of or in conjunction with a particular individual Client) at AUD $200,000. This payout limit may be lower for a specific race, sporting event, and/or type of bet offer. Further terms and conditions in regard to win limits and maximum payouts are set out in the Betting Rules.
- 8.2 Payments on winning Bets that are lawfully and validly placed by you and paid out in accordance with the Betting Rules, will be added to the balance of your Account once the bet has been settled. The payout funds will remain in your Account unless you submit a request that part, or all, of the outstanding balance be returned to you via the 'Withdrawal of Funds' procedure set out in Clause 4.5 above.
- 8.3 You are responsible for reporting your winnings and losses, if such reporting is required by your local laws, tax department or other authorities.

9. DIVIDEND/MARKET MANIPULATION, DIVIDEND/MARKET ERRORS & PAYOUT ERRORS

- 9.2 NEDS may place a limit on the final dividend payable by NEDS, where NEDS has a reasonable suspicion that the odds of the relevant pool have been manipulated, in which case, NEDS reserves the right to cap the dividend it pays on Tote based best to be no greater than 100% higher than the next highest dividend payable on an Australian tote.
- 9.3 Where, in respect of any of our betting products or an event within a betting product, NEDS make an error (whether human or otherwise), we will be entitled to declare the transaction void and withhold any payments. If we wrongly pay an amount to you or we pay you more than the amount to which you are properly entitled, you agree to repay to us immediately upon request from us the amount which has been wrongly paid or overpaid to you.
- 9.4 You also give us permission to adjust your Account to rectify the error. An example of such an error might be where a price is incorrect, a Bet is late, a failure occurs in one of our systems or where we enter a result of an event incorrectly.
- 9.5 You agree to promptly notify us of any matter which comes to your attention from which it might reasonably be concluded that your Account has an incorrect balance for whatever reason or that wrong winnings or dividends have been applied to your Account. Failure to do so may be considered fraud and will be investigated accordingly.
